Libby replaces RBdigital

From 9 March, all eBooks, eAudiobooks and eMagazines from the RBdigital app will move to Libby. OverDrive, the leading digital reading platform for libraries and schools worldwide and creator of the Libby app, recently acquired RBdigital. Titles currently checked out in the RBdigital app will be available through the remainder of the lending period, so readers can finish the title without disruption. With a valid library card, members of the community can now borrow from the library's digital collection by downloading Libby or visiting <https://bit.ly/rucrl> Libby is a user-friendly app that will enhance your eLibrary experience. With Libby, you will have access to a larger collection of eAudiobook and eMagazine titles. The eMagazine collection will be quite extensive and well worth a look.

The advertisement features a teal background. At the top, the text "Borrow ebooks, audiobooks & magazines, all in one app!" is written in a white, sans-serif font. Below this, a tablet and a smartphone are displayed. The tablet shows a page from the "Upright Citizens" magazine, featuring a colorful illustration of a person in a blue suit. The smartphone shows the "O THE OPEN MAGAZINE" app interface, which includes a cover image of a woman and the text "EVERY PERSON HAS A STORY". Below the devices is a circular logo with a stylized face. At the bottom, the word "Libby." is written in a large, dark font, followed by the text "The one-tap reading app from our library" in a smaller, dark font.

Richmond – Upper Clarence Regional Library has re-opened the Lids 4 Kids and Bread Tags for Wheelchairs collection points at our Casino, Kyogle, Evans Head and Coraki branches. Please watch this video to see what lids are eligible for donation:
<https://youtu.be/RTICo1szTzg>

Not all lids can be used by the organisation, so it is important to go through this checklist before you put anything into our collection boxes.

Most lids that have a number 2 or a number 4 recycling symbol are fine. These include most milk bottle, water bottle and soft drink bottle lids. Any lids with numbers 1, 3, 5 or 7 can not be used.

Lids 4 Kids can not use lids from sauce bottles, cream or yoghurt containers, pop top bottles, medicine bottles or yoghurt pouches.

Please check your lids for inserts and remove any that you can. If you can't remove the insert, do not donate the lid.

We can not accept dirty lids. Please wash them well in hot, soapy water and make sure they are completely dry before donating them.

Please separate any bread tags from your lids. The bread tags are sent to a different organisation than the lids.

When you have followed all these steps, you can then sort your lids into colours and put them into our collection boxes. We will pass them onto Lids 4 Kids.

Thank you for supporting Lids 4 Kids and Bread Tags for Wheelchairs, and for helping to keep plastic out of landfill.

David Hallett – Author Visit and Book Launch

One of Australia's premier performance poets David Hallett has been writing and performing since the mid-1970s. Winner of the 2019 Reciter of the Year Award, twice winner of the Poetry Olympics at the Sydney Writers Festival, together with the Woodford Story Award, Nimbin Performance Poetry World Cup and Byron Bay Writers Festival Poetry Prize

Host of two of Australia's longest running spoken word events for nearly 30 years: Byron Bay's 'Writers at the Rails' and Lismore's 'Live Poets', David has taken his poetry from outback schools and festivals to the Sydney Opera House to the beat cafes of New York.

David's performance poetry jumps from the page to the stage, from the traditional Oz poetry of his well-reviewed show 'A Century of Australian Poetry', which featured at both the Woodford and National Folk Festivals, to his own entertaining original contemporary poems which range from the comedic to the satiric to the deadly serious...social, political, environmental, war and peace, love, shopping and our maddening digital world. David is currently featuring 'Out of the Blue', his book launch recital tour of his latest collection of poems published in 2020.
