Name Address The Royal Hotel-Motel 130 Walker Street Heritage Item No Heritage Iconservation Area 2850237 Contributory Item Non-contributory Notes A grand hotel was originally built on this site in 1887 with a prominent corner tower feature. In 1912 a new two storey building was built and further renovations were carried out in the 1920s. The building was demolished in 1967 and replaced by the current Hotel/Motel which demonstrates the architectural fashion of the 1960s era. The hotel closed in 2018 and was purchased by the Casino RSM. Architectural Style Post War 1967
Address 130 Walker Street Heritage Item No Heritage Item No Heritage Conservation 2850237 Area 2850237 Contributory Non-contributory Item Non-contributory Notes A grand hotel was originally built on this site in 1887 with a prominent corner tower feature. In 1912 a new two storey building was built and further renovations were carried out in the 1920s. The building was demolished in 1967 and replaced by the current Hotel/Motel which demonstrates the architectural fashion of the 1960s era. The hotel closed in 2018 and was purchased by the Casino RSM. Architectural Post War 1967	Name	The Royal Hotel-Motel
Heritage Item No Heritage Conservation Area Yes 2850237 Contributory Item Non-contributory Item Notes A grand hotel was originally built on this site in 1887 with a prominent corner tower feature. In 1912 a new two storey building was built and further renovations were carried out in the 1920s. The building was demolished in 1967 and replaced by the current Hotel/Motel which demonstrates the architectural fashion of the 1960s era. The hotel closed in 2018 and was purchased by the Casino RSM. Architectural Style Post War 1967	Address	-
Conservation Area Area Contributory Item Non-contributory Notes A grand hotel was originally built on this site in 1887 with a prominent corner tower feature. In 1912 a new two storey building was built and further renovations were carried out in the 1920s. The building was demolished in 1967 and replaced by the current Hotel/Motel which demonstrates the architectural fashion of the 1960s era. The hotel closed in 2018 and was purchased by the Casino RSM. Architectural Style Post War 1967	Heritage Item	No
Area		Yes	2850237
Contributory Item Non-contributory Notes A grand hotel was originally built on this site in 1887 with a prominent corner tower feature. In 1912 a new two storey building was built and further renovations were carried out in the 1920s. The building was demolished in 1967 and replaced by the current Hotel/Motel which demonstrates the architectural fashion of the 1960s era. The hotel closed in 2018 and was purchased by the Casino RSM. Architectural Style Post War 1967
Notes A grand hotel was originally built on this site in 1887 with a prominent corner tower feature. In 1912 a new two storey building was built and further renovations were carried out in the 1920s. The building was demolished in 1967 and replaced by the current Hotel/Motel which demonstrates the architectural fashion of the 1960s era. The hotel closed in 2018 and was purchased by the Casino RSM. Architectural Post War 1967 Style Image: style Image: style	-	Non-contributory
Style		tower feature. In 1912 a new two storey building was built and further renovations were carried out in the 1920s. The building was demolished in 1967 and replaced by the current Hotel/Motel which demonstrates the architectural fashion of the
		Post War	1967

Attachment 4 Extract from CBD Main Street Audit August 2020 Clarence Heritage

Building Elements	Observations
Roof	Shallow pitched metal roof. No parapet to street.
Gutter	Not visible.
Walls	Face brickwork unpainted.
Windows and Doors	Timber framed windows and doors in recessed bays between projecting brick piers.
Awning	Suspended cantilievered metal awning with a metal fascia signage.
with a well-o	dations uitable for redevelopment and holds considerable potential to enhance the historic CBD designed contributory new infill development. Early discussions are encouraged in relation se to the heritage context of the site.	